ARRANGE WHO WILL LOOK AFTER YOUR PET(S) WHEN YOU ARE NO LONGER ABLE TO WITH A PET FUTURE CUSTODY AGREEMENT

Our pets are like our children aren't they?

So like all responsible parents we should plan for who would look after them should we be unable to ourselves for any reason.

Many people put clauses in a Will, but what if you don't die and, for example lose mental capacity or have to move to a care home that will not allow your beloved friend(s) to come with you, or, it is just impractical to do so?

This is where your "Pet Future Custody Agreement" provides you with complete peace of mind.

It is a legal document, signed by yourself and individuals who have agreed to take on the responsibility of providing your beloved pet(s) with the caring and safe environment that they deserve when you are no longer able to, for whatever reason.

The document details such things as diet, medications, vet, insurance company, chip number, exercise routine and much more besides.

It provides for 2 separate reserve guardians to be elected, one of whom would take over the role should your primary choice of carer be unable to at the time of need or subsequently deteriorate in health themselves once they have begun to look after your pet(s).

When combined with Priority Client Cover (4.99€ a month), the agreement can be updated as many times as is required for the life of your pet(s) - TOTALLY FREE OF CHARGE.
